

Mastiha (Mastic) Powder

This is a pure powder with not additives or fillers of any kind.
As such, in the heat, the powder tends to come back together again.

The way to deal with this, is to put the package into your freezer for a short time.
You will then find you can break in back down again without to much trouble, using something like a mortar and pestle.

The quality of the product is not affected.